OLD BUSINESS:

A. Interview Project – Status Report:

Resident Ann Chally was interviewed this month. Based on the cooperation of all of the churches in town that submitted their directories there will be a list made and all people sent a letter of explanation and a questionnaire asking them to return this questionnaire completed, and the interview team will review these questionnaires and contact the most likely candidates requesting an interview. We will retain all of these questionnaires in a file and determine later what use we can make of them.

B. Display Case At Library and Village Hall:

Member Jolitz stated that the display case at the Main Library will feature an Algonquin Postcard Exhibit. Mr Mason stated that there was money put into the budget for a new display case for the Village Hall. He will see about putting an order in with the Vendor
