AGENDA ITEM 1: Roll Call and Establish a Quorum

Mr. Mason called the meeting to order at 7pm. Members present were Chairperson Miller and Commissioners Foster, Sapeta, and Schmitt. Members absent were Browe-Ullery, Kennedy and Wood Perdeu. A quorum was present.

AGENDA ITEM 2: Approval of Minutes

Commissioner Sapeta made a motion to approve the minutes of the February 17, 2016 meeting, seconded by Commissioner Foster, motion was approved by voice vote.

AGENDA ITEM 3: Public Comment

There was no one wishing to make any public comment.

AGENDA ITEM 4: Art on the Fox

Ms. Julie Farris, JMF Events provided an update on artist registration. Fourteen submissions have been received thus far, and the call for artists has been extended until May 15. Ms. Farris also noted she has made some calls for sponsorships, and Colonial Café has expressed interest in sponsoring some type of activity at the event. Commission members were each asked to recruit one or more businesses for sponsorship. The commission was also asked to provide any final suggestions for artwork images by April 30 for the kids hands-on block tower activity. Ms. Farris also reminded everyone to send her the contact information for any possible entertainment acts, and Mr. Mason stated he would contact a local artist and art instructor Tom Vician to see if he would have any suggestions from McHenry County College.

AGENDA ITEM 5: Student Art Exhibit

The Commissioners deliberated upon entrants and "best of show" award winners for the 2016 Student Art Exhibit. After time, three winners were selected from each school, and one overall winner for the Richard A. Rehwaldt Memorial Award.

AGENDA ITEM 6: Other Business

The next arts commission meeting will be scheduled for April.

AGENDA ITEM 7: Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 8:45 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Benjamin A. Mason, Senior Planner
