

MINUTES OF
ALGONQUIN VILLAGE LIQUOR COMMISSION
HELD IN VILLAGE HALL ON JANUARY 3, 2012

CALL TO ORDER: With the Village Board seated as the Liquor Commission, Liquor Commissioner John Schmitt opened the meeting at 7:00 p.m.. A roll call showed the following commissioners present: Debby Sosine, Jim Steigert, Jerrold Glogowski, John Spella, Brian Dianis. Absent; Robert Smith. Staff in attendance; William Ganek, Russ Farnum, Russ Laine, Attorney; Kelly Cahill, and Village Clerk, Jerry Kautz.

CONSIDER LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION:

Mr. Schmitt requested the Liquor Commission consider consenting to the approval of the following liquor licenses:

Class F

J & N Holdings, Ltd. d/b/a Burnt Toast Restaurant, 2520 Bunker Hill Drive, Algonquin, Illinois 60102

Mr. Schmitt reported all filing papers were submitted and in order. Mr. Konstantinos Drivas, president, was asked by Mr. Dianis about his BASSET training and if he ever sold liquor before. He replied that he does serve liquor at his Elgin, Illinois establishment and that his staff is trained but he will take BASSET training since he is the owner. With no further questions, it was the consensus of the Commission to issue the license

Class F

Colonial Ice Cream, Inc. d/b/a Colonial Café, 2555 Bunker Hill Drive, Algonquin, Illinois 60102

Mr. Schmitt reported all documents, fees, and insurance are in order. Mr. Thomas Anderson, president, was in attendance to answer questions. Mr. Dianis asked him about BASSET training. Mr. Anderson replied that he and his staff have undergone BASSET training and all are certified. With no further questions, it was the consensus of the Commission to issue the license

Class A-1

Niko's Lodge Algonquin, Inc. d/b/a Niko's Lodge, 1520 South Randall Road, Algonquin, Illinois 60102 (former Barley House property)

Mr. Schmitt stated all documents, fees, and insurance are in order. Mr. Nick Kanakaris representing the applicant was present to answer questions. He was asked by Mr. Dianis about his BASSET training and if he ever sold liquor before. The reply was that he and all his staff have been BASSET trained and that he has previous restaurant experience. With no further questions, it was the consensus of the Commission to issue the license.

At this point in the meeting, a Liquor Control Commission Hearing was conducted for Ganlaxmi, Inc. d/b/a Discount Liquors. There was an admission of guilt; a fine of $500 plus all court costs was imposed, payable to the Village within 30 days of today's date. Details will be covered in the court reporter's transcript.

ADJOURNMENT: Commissioner Schmitt adjourned the meeting at 7:25 p.m.
